THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

~~TOP SECRET~~ [redacted]

Wednesday, March 6, 1968
11:50 a.m.

MR. PRESIDENT:

You may recall that Bob Ginsburgh and I reviewed with you some extremely tentative evidence that enemy units might be pulling away from Khe Sanh to do battle elsewhere.

On the basis of extremely fragile evidence the CIA concluded this morning:

[redacted]

I would not yet draw the conclusion that they have given up on an attempt to take Khe Sanh.

It does seem likely that they intend to make a major second try at Hue soon.
